CURRICULA
REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

Mr. Lester Owens, center, works with sophomore drafting students, Winston, and Randetta, on blueprints for a local community health center.

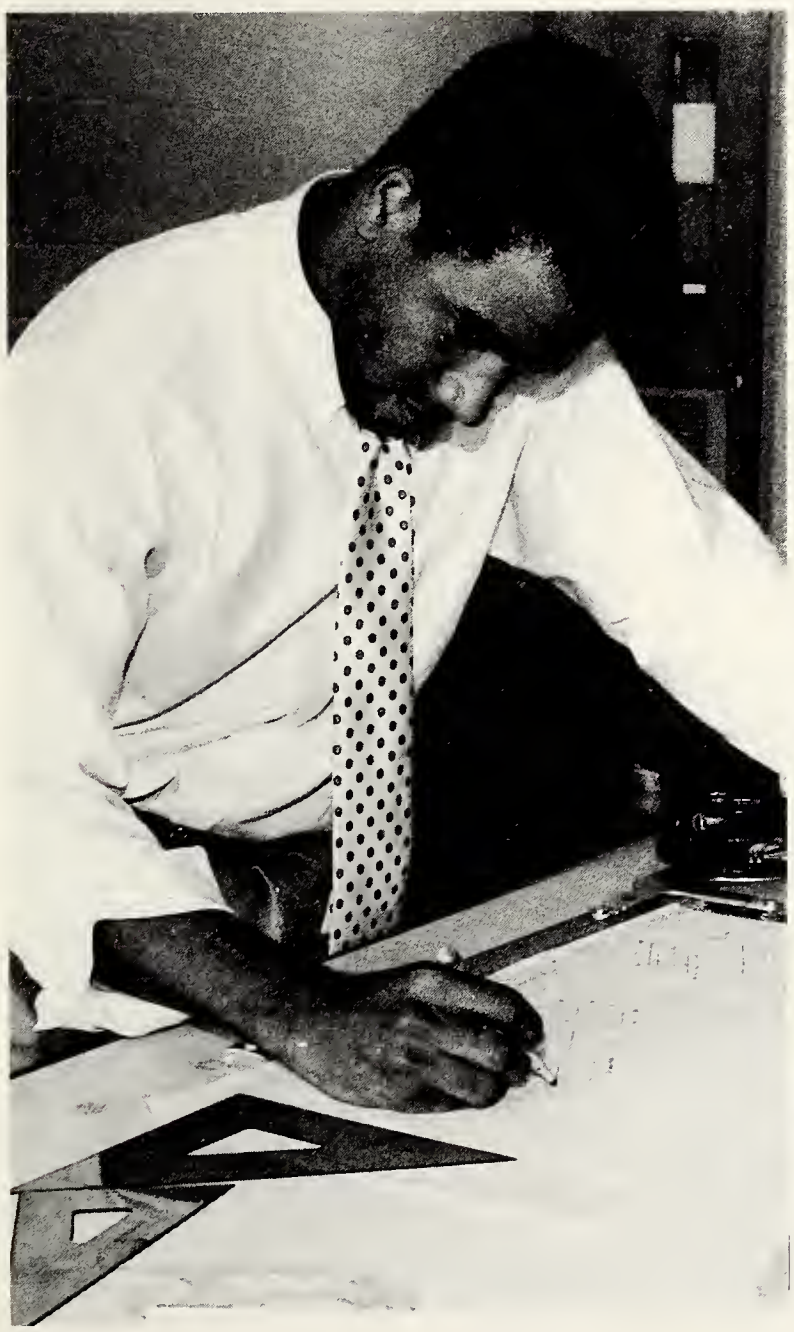

The dormitory students rush to make their 8:30 AM appointment-class. It helps to get their adrenalin flowing.

Mrs. Mary Nell Scott assists work study student, Calvin Wilson, in checking an outline for his English class.

Winston relies on his engineering instincts to make his first invention of a musical female transformer a big seller.

Nicole Oree, Miss Utica Campus, receives a first-hand demonstration of the art of wood carving. The wood carving artist was among several others who attended the Utica Campus in honor of Fine Arts Week in April.

STUDENT LIFE

Literature is one subject that Jerry seems to continually grow fond of. Shakespeare is next on his agenda of books to read.

The queen, Nicole Oree, & king, Michael Youngblood, and their royal court, Dichondra Miller, Gelston McCornell and Tammy Reese greet onlookers during the Homecoming parade on October 13.

Cosmetology students listen attentatively as Vice President Barnes delivers his keynote address during the first administrative assembly.

Mr. and Miss Utica Campus, Michael Youngblood and Nicole Oree, take their royal walk and greet several hundred onlookers during the Coronation Ball on October 12.

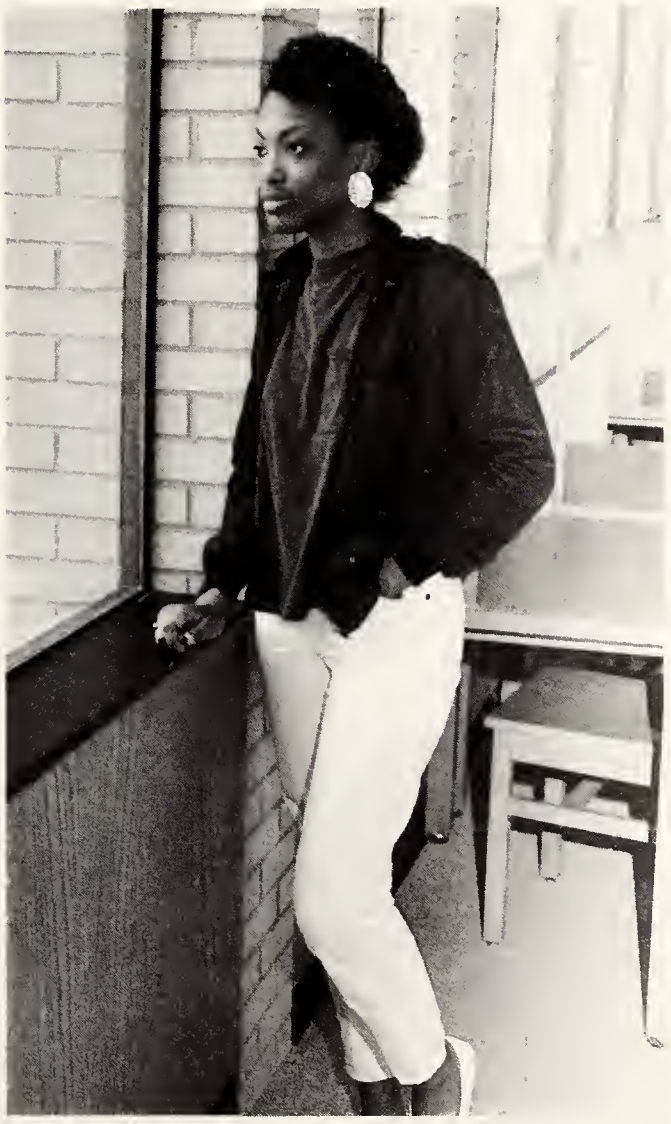

Sandra and Arthur are bargain hunters and smart shoppers. They probe the newspaper looking for coupons.

Student fees are a major factor in school operation. Ms. Bishop provides Dwayne with a print out of his fee sheet.

Dwayne and Shaulanda represented the Usher Club in the Homecoming Parade.

Felicia is just WONDERING!

The height to every college student's dream is GRADUATION.

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

Congressman Mike Parker, 1988-89 Commencement speaker, and Board of Trustees President, A.A. Alexander, share humor concerning affairs on Captial Hill during a reception following graduation in May.

Doris, left, and Brenda were among some 200 students to participate in the 1988-89 graduation exercise. Both were cosmetology graduates.

In celebration of Black History Month, Martin Luther King, III, spoke to a packed audience of high school and college students about the need to overcome problems facing teenagers today.

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

Members of the College Choir perform during the first administrative assembly.

Vice President Barnes shares a moment in conversation with Mrs. Nowell during the pre-school conference held in August.

PEOPLE

Miss Utica Campus, Nichole Oree, prepares for her royal salute.

All hands were busy with decoration for the Homecoming Parade, even parents got busy.

Mrs. Brown is doing one of the things she enjoys most — helping students.

Mrs. Ginger Smith, Mrs. Shirley Mays and Mrs. Willie Burnley take advantage of the continental breakfast during the pre-school conference.

Mrs. Alma Fisher, librarian, works throughout the year providing workshops designed to teach employees and students how to use the public access catalog.

REACHING THE MARK OF A TRUE CHAMPION

Physical activity gives balance to human development. It stimulates the brain waves and rejuvenates the body muscles. It requires thought, concentration and action. It requires dexterity and agility, discipline and determination. The key is to continue reaching.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR UTICA CAMPUS/ADMINISTRATIVE AND STUDENT SERVICES

Dear Uticanites:

Receiving an education entails more than merely meeting the academic requirements of an institution. It involves aiding in the total development of the individual. Here at the Utica Campus, that is our goal--to develop the complete person academically, socially, economically, physically and mentally.

We take this time to congratulate our hard-working yearbook staff for a job well done in the pictorial depiction of life and our positive efforts in educating young minds here at the Utica Campus. The staff has made a special effort to ensure that all facets of life at and/or around this institution are exhibited. Hopefully, as you scan through the pages, fond memories will be rehatched, friends will be remembered, and activities, festivities and incidents will be relived.

May this book serve as a memoir of the hours, days and months our students spent here on the Utica Campus at Hinds Community College in pursuit of their dreams--dreams which a sound, quality education can help to come true. Additionally, may this book help them to remember those who were instrumental in shaping as well as preparing them for the acquisition of future opportunities.

Again, we congratulate our yearbook staff.

Respectfully yours,

George E. Barnes

STUDENT LIFE

Going off to college holds many fantasies, promises, experiences and rewards. Leaving home to live in a foreign land with foreign faces can, in itself, be freightening. Even commuting to and from this foreign place daily can have its visceral moments.

What happened? Midway between the first semester the foreign land looked like home. The foreign faces seemed like family. All fear is gone. Or, has it reversed? Home begins to seem more foreign. Your room has been turned into a den. Your favorite blanket now belongs to the dog. Oh, and the clothes you left home have been donated to charity. What do you do? You adjust.

You become more conscious of the world around you. You thirst for knowledge. You seek wisdom and understanding. You become a part of it all. Then you begin to wonder what is this new thing that has happen in your life — YOU HAVE REACHED A NEW HEIGHT.

Santa Claus presents Edward a candy stocking filled with Christmas goodies and a muppet.

The nursery school is under the direction of Mrs. Gloria Johnson, director; Mrs. Marilyn Binion-Davis, and Mrs. Freddie Jackson, child care instructors.

CHRISTMAS CHOIR CONCERT

The Utica Campus choir practices long hours after school and they perform during most assembly programs. Discipline is a part of the "kill". They are a group of dedicated individuals who view work as play time because of the fun and enjoyment they get while in session. Each year these thought to be "overworked" voices blend together to form melodies of angelic harmony during the annual Christmas choir concert. The director is Dr. Bobby Cooper.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

On February 16, 1989, in honor of Black History Month, the Utica Campus was inspired by the words of Martin Luther King, III, son of slain civil rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Mr. King reminded the audience that mistreatment, abuse and confusion are reasons why Afro-Americans are behind today. He commented that Blacks have made great contributions that must be unveiled to our children. "We must commit ourselves to being role models for our children. Teach them to love and believe in themselves and re-enforce that teaching with examples," King said.

HONORS AND AWARDS DAY

Each year students who have achieved academic excellence or have made noteworthy contributions within a club or organization on a local, state, or national level are recognized for their accomplishment. Of those academic honorees, one overall student from the academic, technical and vocational areas is selected as "outstanding" by having attained the highest academic average within their particular division. This page is dedicated to the students who believe in achievement.

Nichole Oree, Miss Utica Campus.

Darryl Burnley, Outstanding Academic Student.

Gloria Johnson, Outstanding Technical Student.

The voice of Mrs. Yolanda Williams, computer science instructor, has entertained audiences throughout the United States. Her rendition of "America, the Beautiful" seems to be a favorite among the students and faculty alike. She keeps the audience on the edge of their seats and eventually moves them to their feet.

IN CELEBRATION OF A KING

Four years ago, 1986, then president, Ronald Reagan declared Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday a public legal holiday. Many schools and businesses throughout Mississippi and the United States closed shop in recognition of Dr. King's birthday on January 15. The Hinds Community College District, however, remained opened. This year the MS NAACP called for a boycott of schools and businesses that refused to close on Dr. King's birthday. As a result, many students stayed home.

Operating under the Hinds Community College District umbrella, the Utica Campus, however, planned a general assembly honoring the slain civil rights leader. Dr. Ora Stanton, a member of the HCC Board of Trustees, delivered the keynote address. Her topic was, "The Life and Times of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr." The program was held in the J.D. Boyd Gymnasium at 10:30 AM. It was sponsored by the Student Government Organization.

Program participants were Rev. Joseph Bartee, welding instructor, Invocation; Michell Gordon, SGO vice president, Occasion; Michelle Welch, SGO secretary, Introduction of Guest Speaker; and The Jubilee Singers under the direction of Dr. Bobby Cooper. Announcements were made by Dean of Students, Johnny Crisler and Dr. George Barnes, Utica Campus vice president, made remarks. The program ended with the audience holding hands and singing "We Shall Overcome." The celebration, however, ended at 6PM with a Candlelight Vigil in the Amphitheater. Mrs. Bessie Brown, English instructor, was the keynote speaker. Her topic was "Keeping Hope and the Dream Alive."

The Jubilee Singers perform "Bound for Jubilee."

Vice president Barnes encourages students to take advantage of the opportunities made possible as a result of Dr. King's efforts. He especially stressed taking advantage of educational opportunities.

Pictured with Dr. Stanton, center, is Dr. Barnes, left, and Hinds Community College District President, Dr. Clyde Muse.

Dr. Stanton encouraged the audience to delve more into the history of Black Americans.

The audience sang with enthusiasm, "We Shall Overcome" as the love and struggle of Dr. King filled the air.

FEATURES

REACHING

Throughout time there have been those who received special attention or recognition for their accomplishments. The Utica Campus salutes those achievers. The personalities featured on the next several pages are among many who desire honor. They are leaders in time of trials and they are followers in the fulfillment of leadership. They are aggressive with challenges and they are passive with indecisions. With definite goals, their aim is high and their determination is endless. Their undertaking of a new challenge only takes them to a new height.

NURSERY SCHOOL

The Utica Campus nursery school serves as a learning center for children 2-5 years of age. Their learning experiences scan the social, recreational and academic arenas. However, the existence of the nursery school is two-fold. College students enrolled in the Child Development Technology program receive first hand on-the-job training through their interaction with the nursery school students.

This year the nursery school students have shared with the public their aspirations for the future.

SOFTBALL

In 1989, the Lady Eagles softball team brought home the gold with State and Region 23 Championship titles.

SOCCER

In 1988 the team ended the season with a 7-8-2 record and a Region 23 Championship title.

Tom Shepherd
Soccer Coach

TRACK

Capturing both state and Region 23 titles, the 1989 track team was no stranger to the winner's circle.

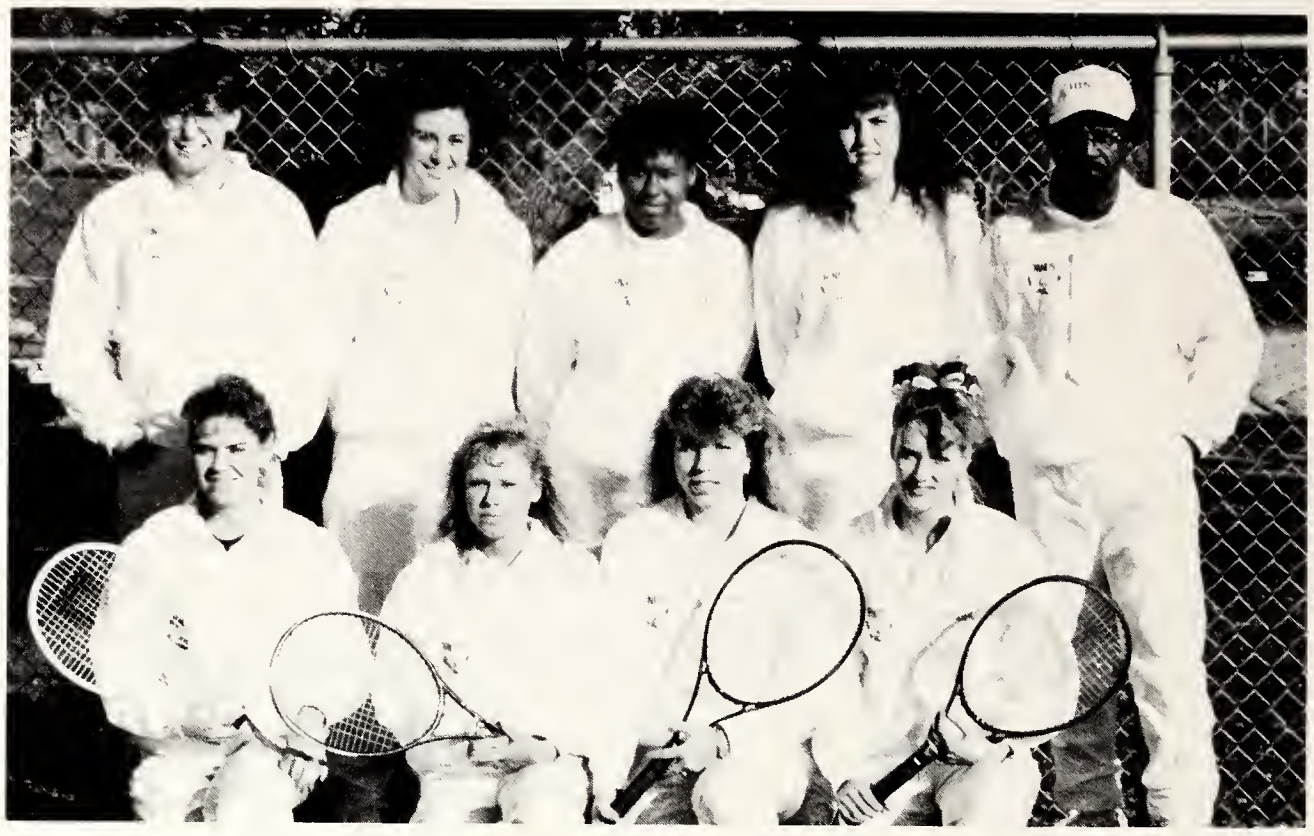

Anthony Ratliff was a vital part of the Hinds track team.

The Hinds track team also participated in the men's high jump competition.

TENNIS

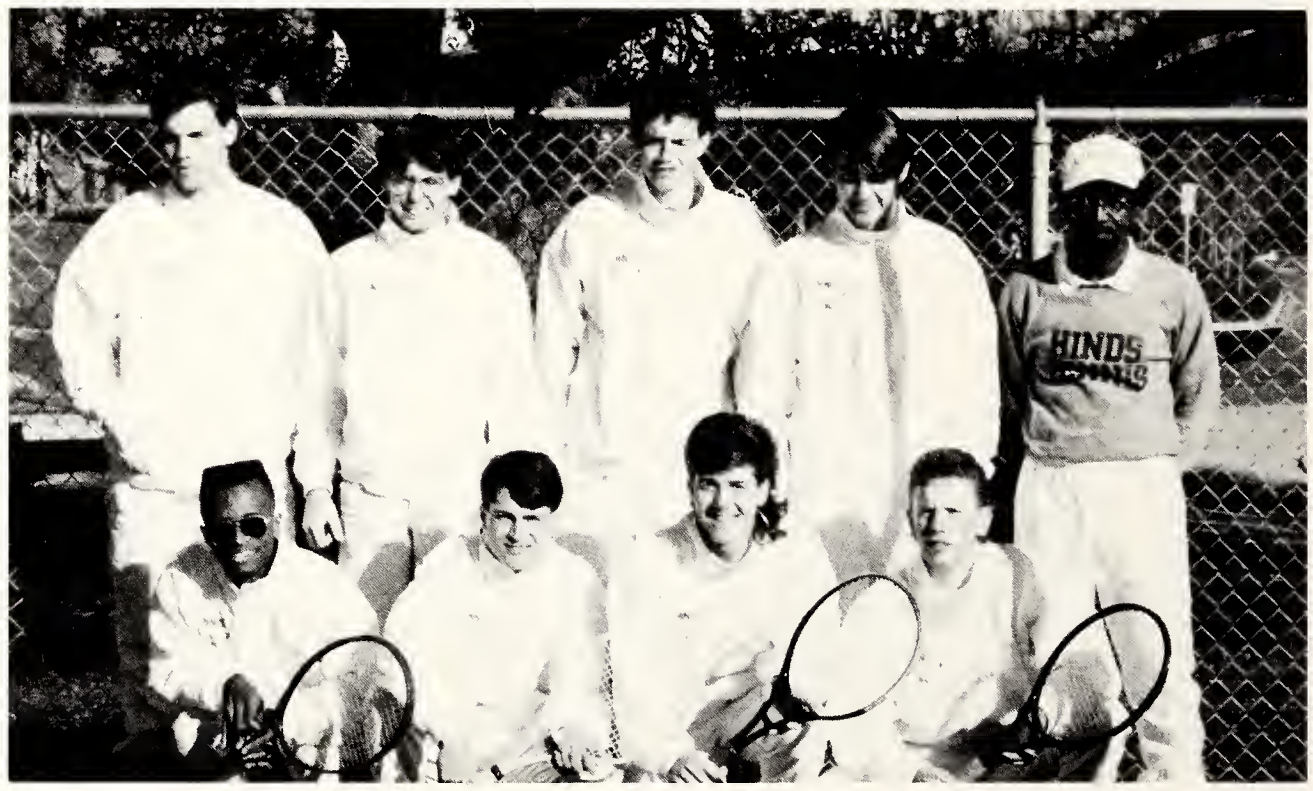

The women's tennis team went undefeated in the 1989 season with a 12-0 record. They were 1989 State and Region 23 Champions. The men's team placed number two in both State and Region 23.

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

To continue their winning streak, the players must put in hours of practice.

ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

All of their hard work paid off.

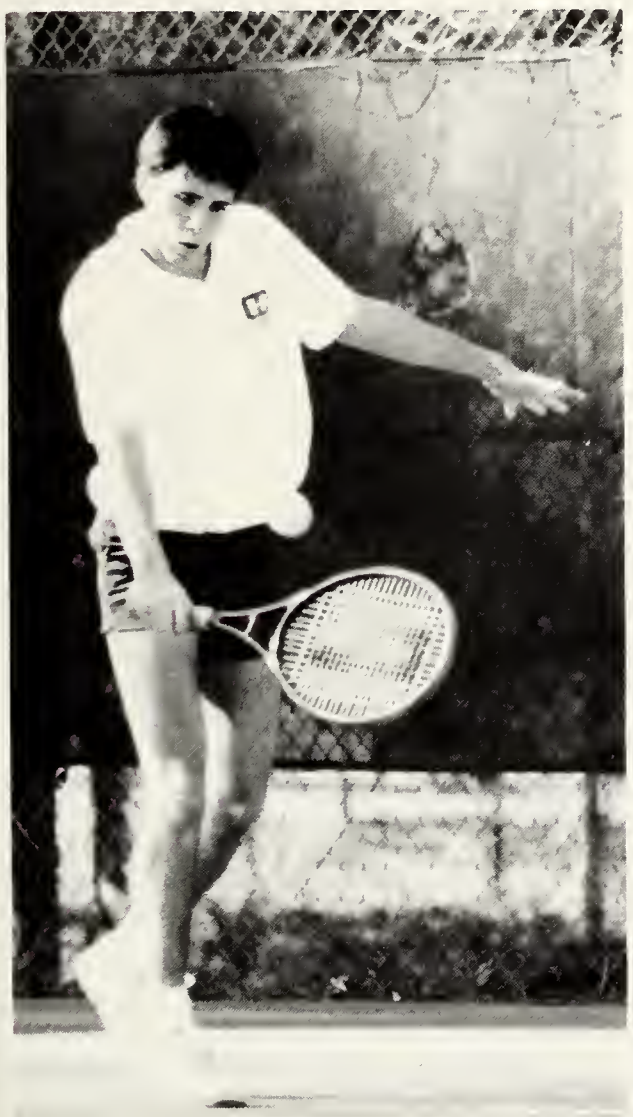

Perfecting that winning swing!

Five of the Hinds women tennis players were named to All-State and All-Region teams.

The men's tennis team placed number two in both State and Region 23 in 1989.

Under the leadership of coach McKnight, the Hinds team has a 22-3 record over the past two seasons.

Balance plays a key role when playing tennis.

BASEBALL TEAM

In 1989, Hinds baseball set a Mississippi community and junior college precedent when it became the first Mississippi baseball team to participate in the NJCAA JUCO World Series.

Finishing the season with a 40-14 overall record, Hinds made its way to the national tournament by winning the 1989 State Championship and then capturing the Region 23 title as well. The Region 23 victory put the Eagles on the road to the Eastern District Tournament in South Carolina. Snagging that title, the team headed for Grand Junction, Colorado where they shared the national JUCO baseball spotlight.

Coach Rick Clarke was named the 1989 State and Region 23 Coach of the Year and also holds the distinction of Eastern District Coach of the Year. The Baseball Eagles have been South Division champs since 1986 and were State champions in 1987, in addition to the team's current titles.

Rick Clarke
Head Coach

George McQuitter
Assistant Coach

Coach McQuitter gives pointers on batting techniques.

It was the curve ball that assisted in winning the State Championship.

The sweet smell of victory.

BASEBALL

Could this really be a home run?

This run could win the game.

Coaches Clark and McQuitter appear to be a bit worried.

A winning Pitch!

Baseball requires a great deal of concentration.

LADY BULLDOGS

Coach Owens and the side liners watch in awe as Tonya plows through the opponents for a difficult two points.

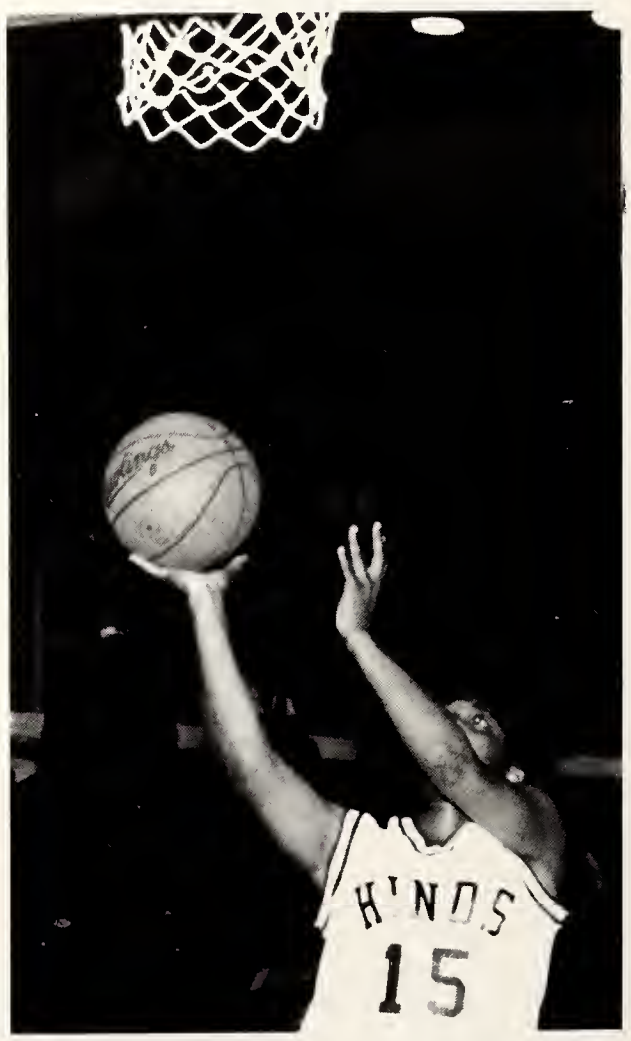

Tonya McJimmson says, "out of my way" to Delta State.

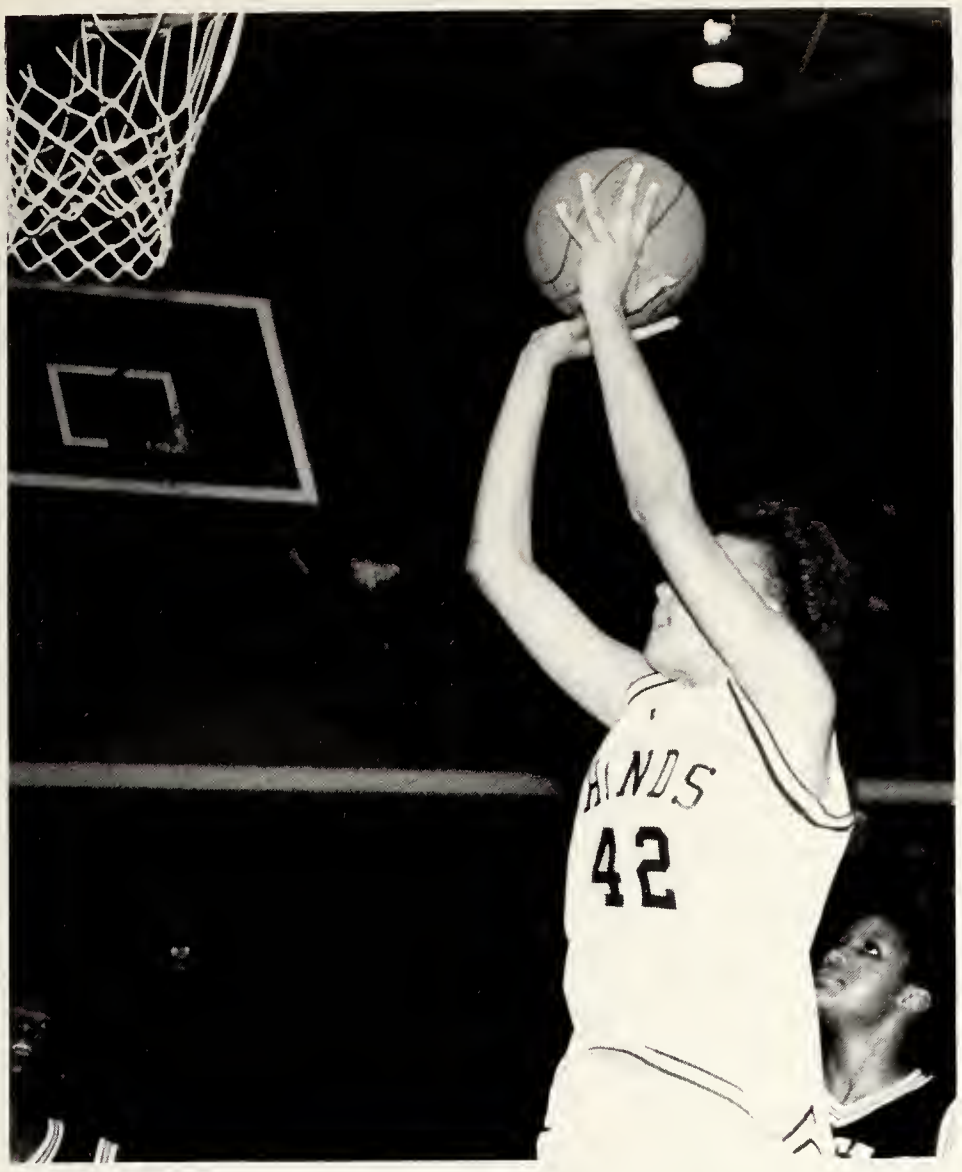

Donna is fouled as she shoots for two. She scores then sinks the extra point, making it a three point play.

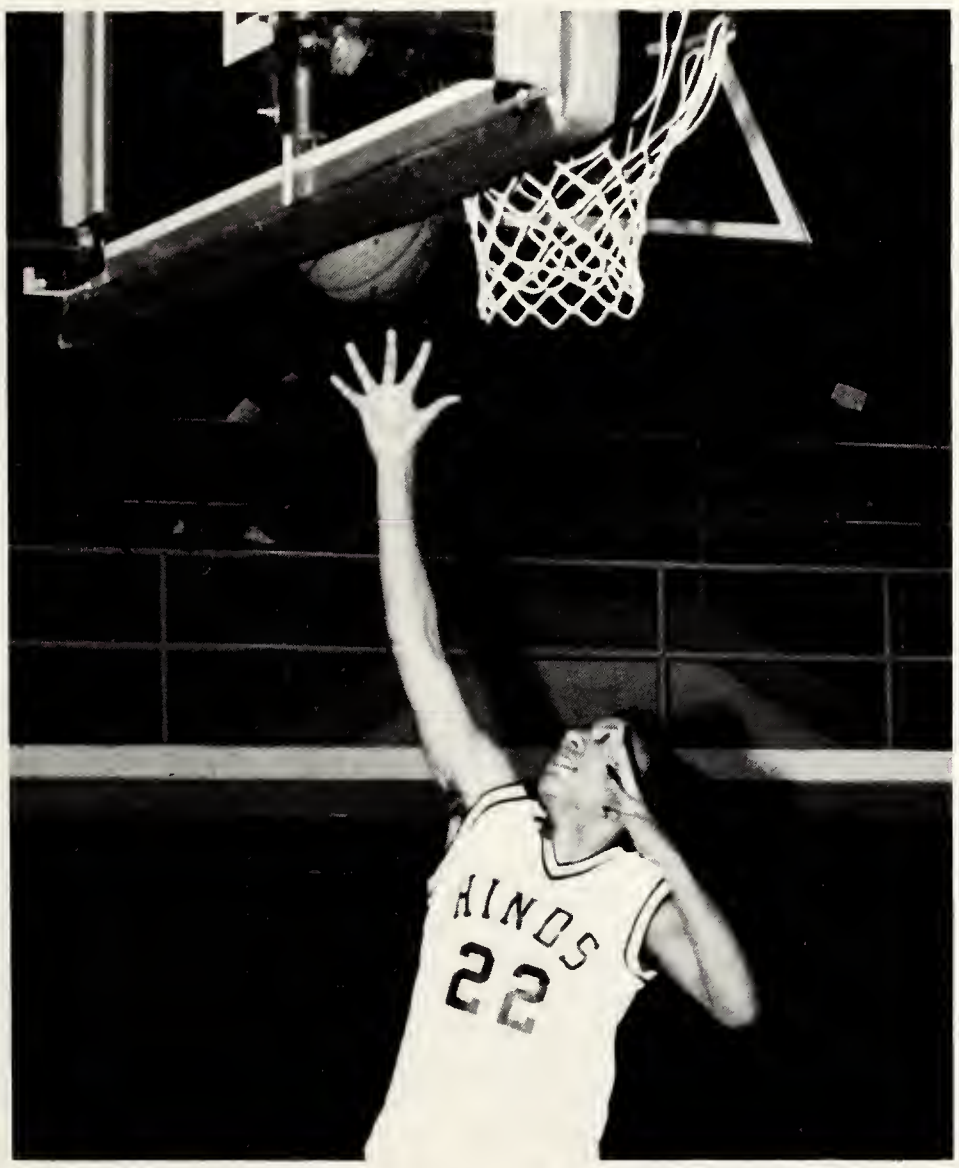

Tonya dares the opponent to block her shot. It's a sure one.

"In your eyes," Priscilla Walker

Tonya Graham goes unopposed for the easy basket.

"Count 'em," Priscilla Walker

Donna Washington shoots a free throw. She is perfect from the charity line.

"Don't even try it," Priscilla Walker

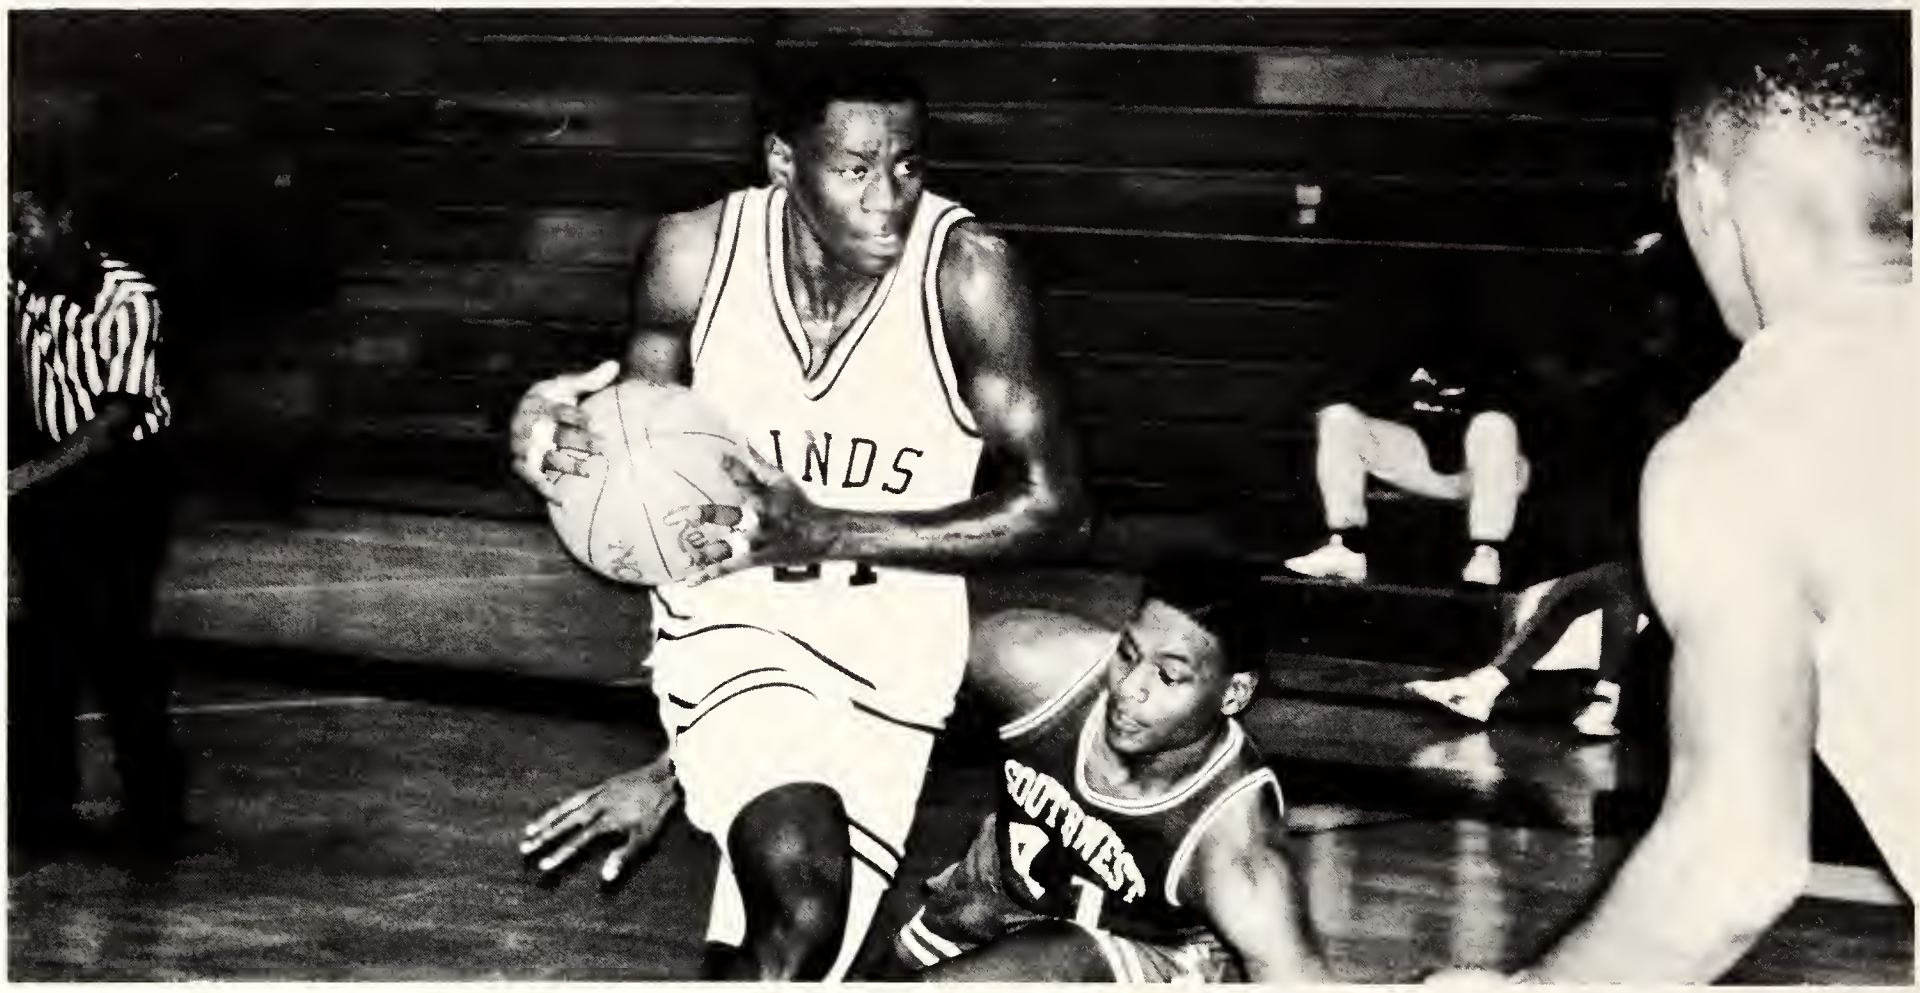

"Catch me if you can," Zelda "Lefty" Walker.

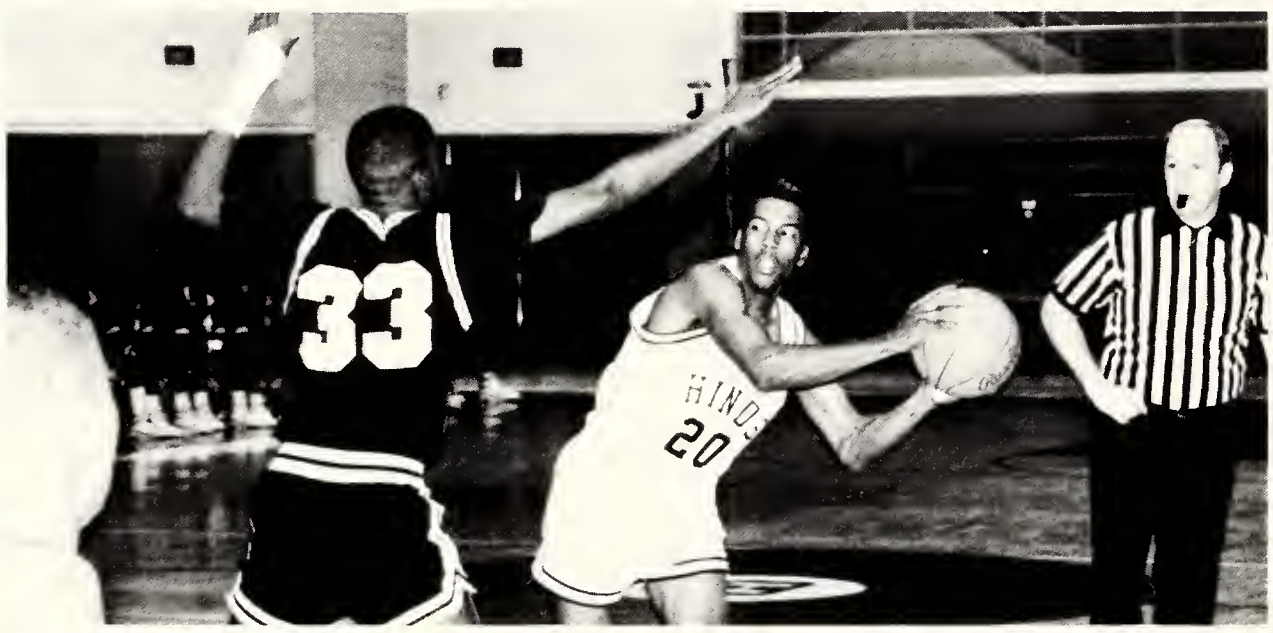

"How do you like me now," Donna Washington

Awe, the sweet smell of victory. Gela seals the win with a tough block shot.

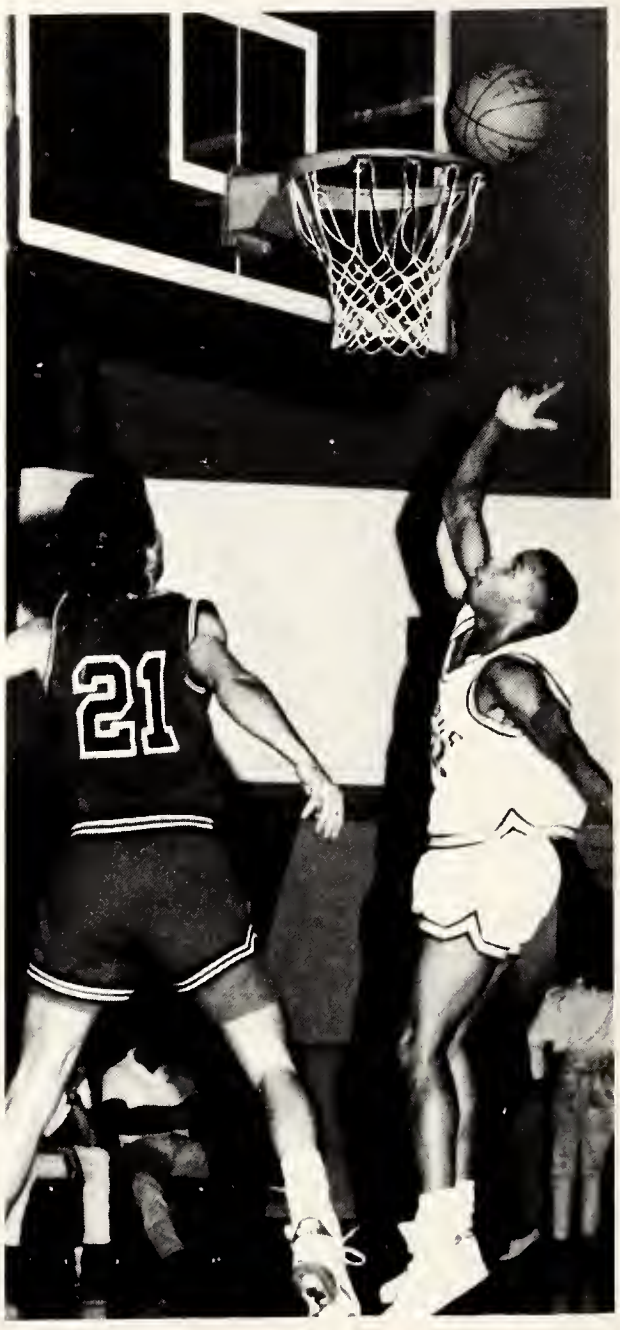

Kelly goes around his opponent for an easy basket to lead the Bulldogs to a victory over Southwest.

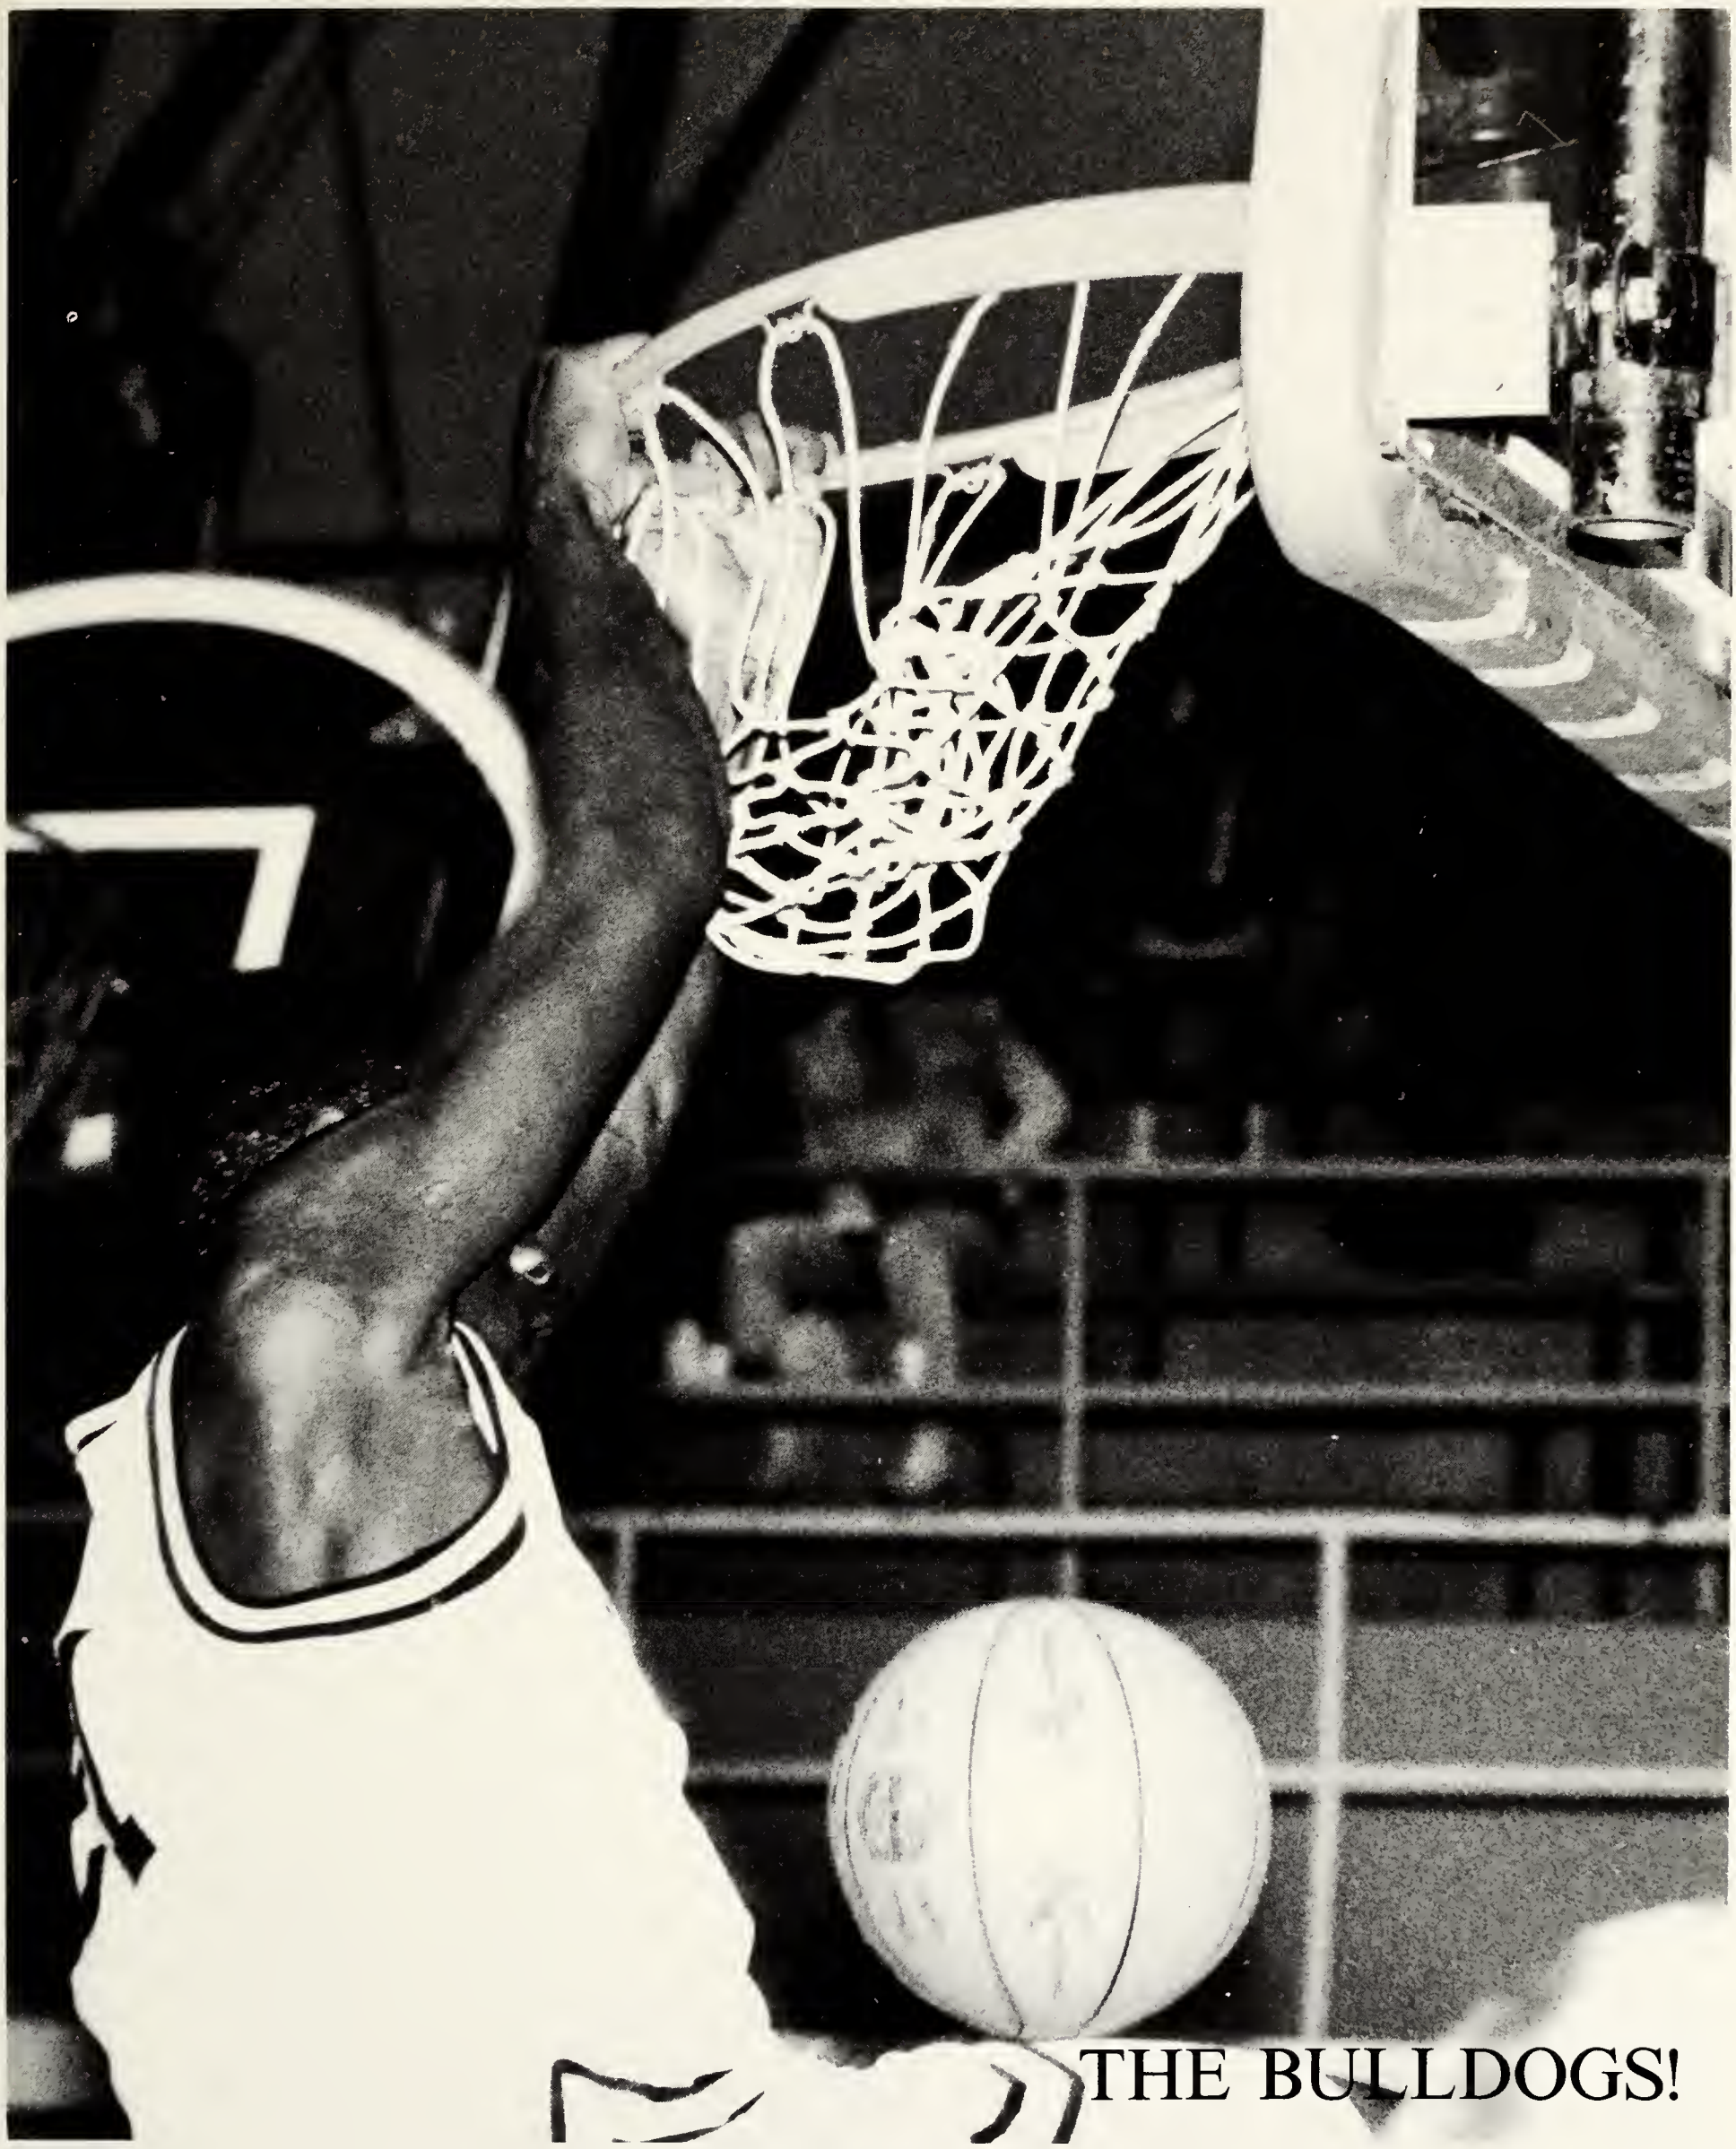

Whitley gets an assist as Robins powers up for two points.

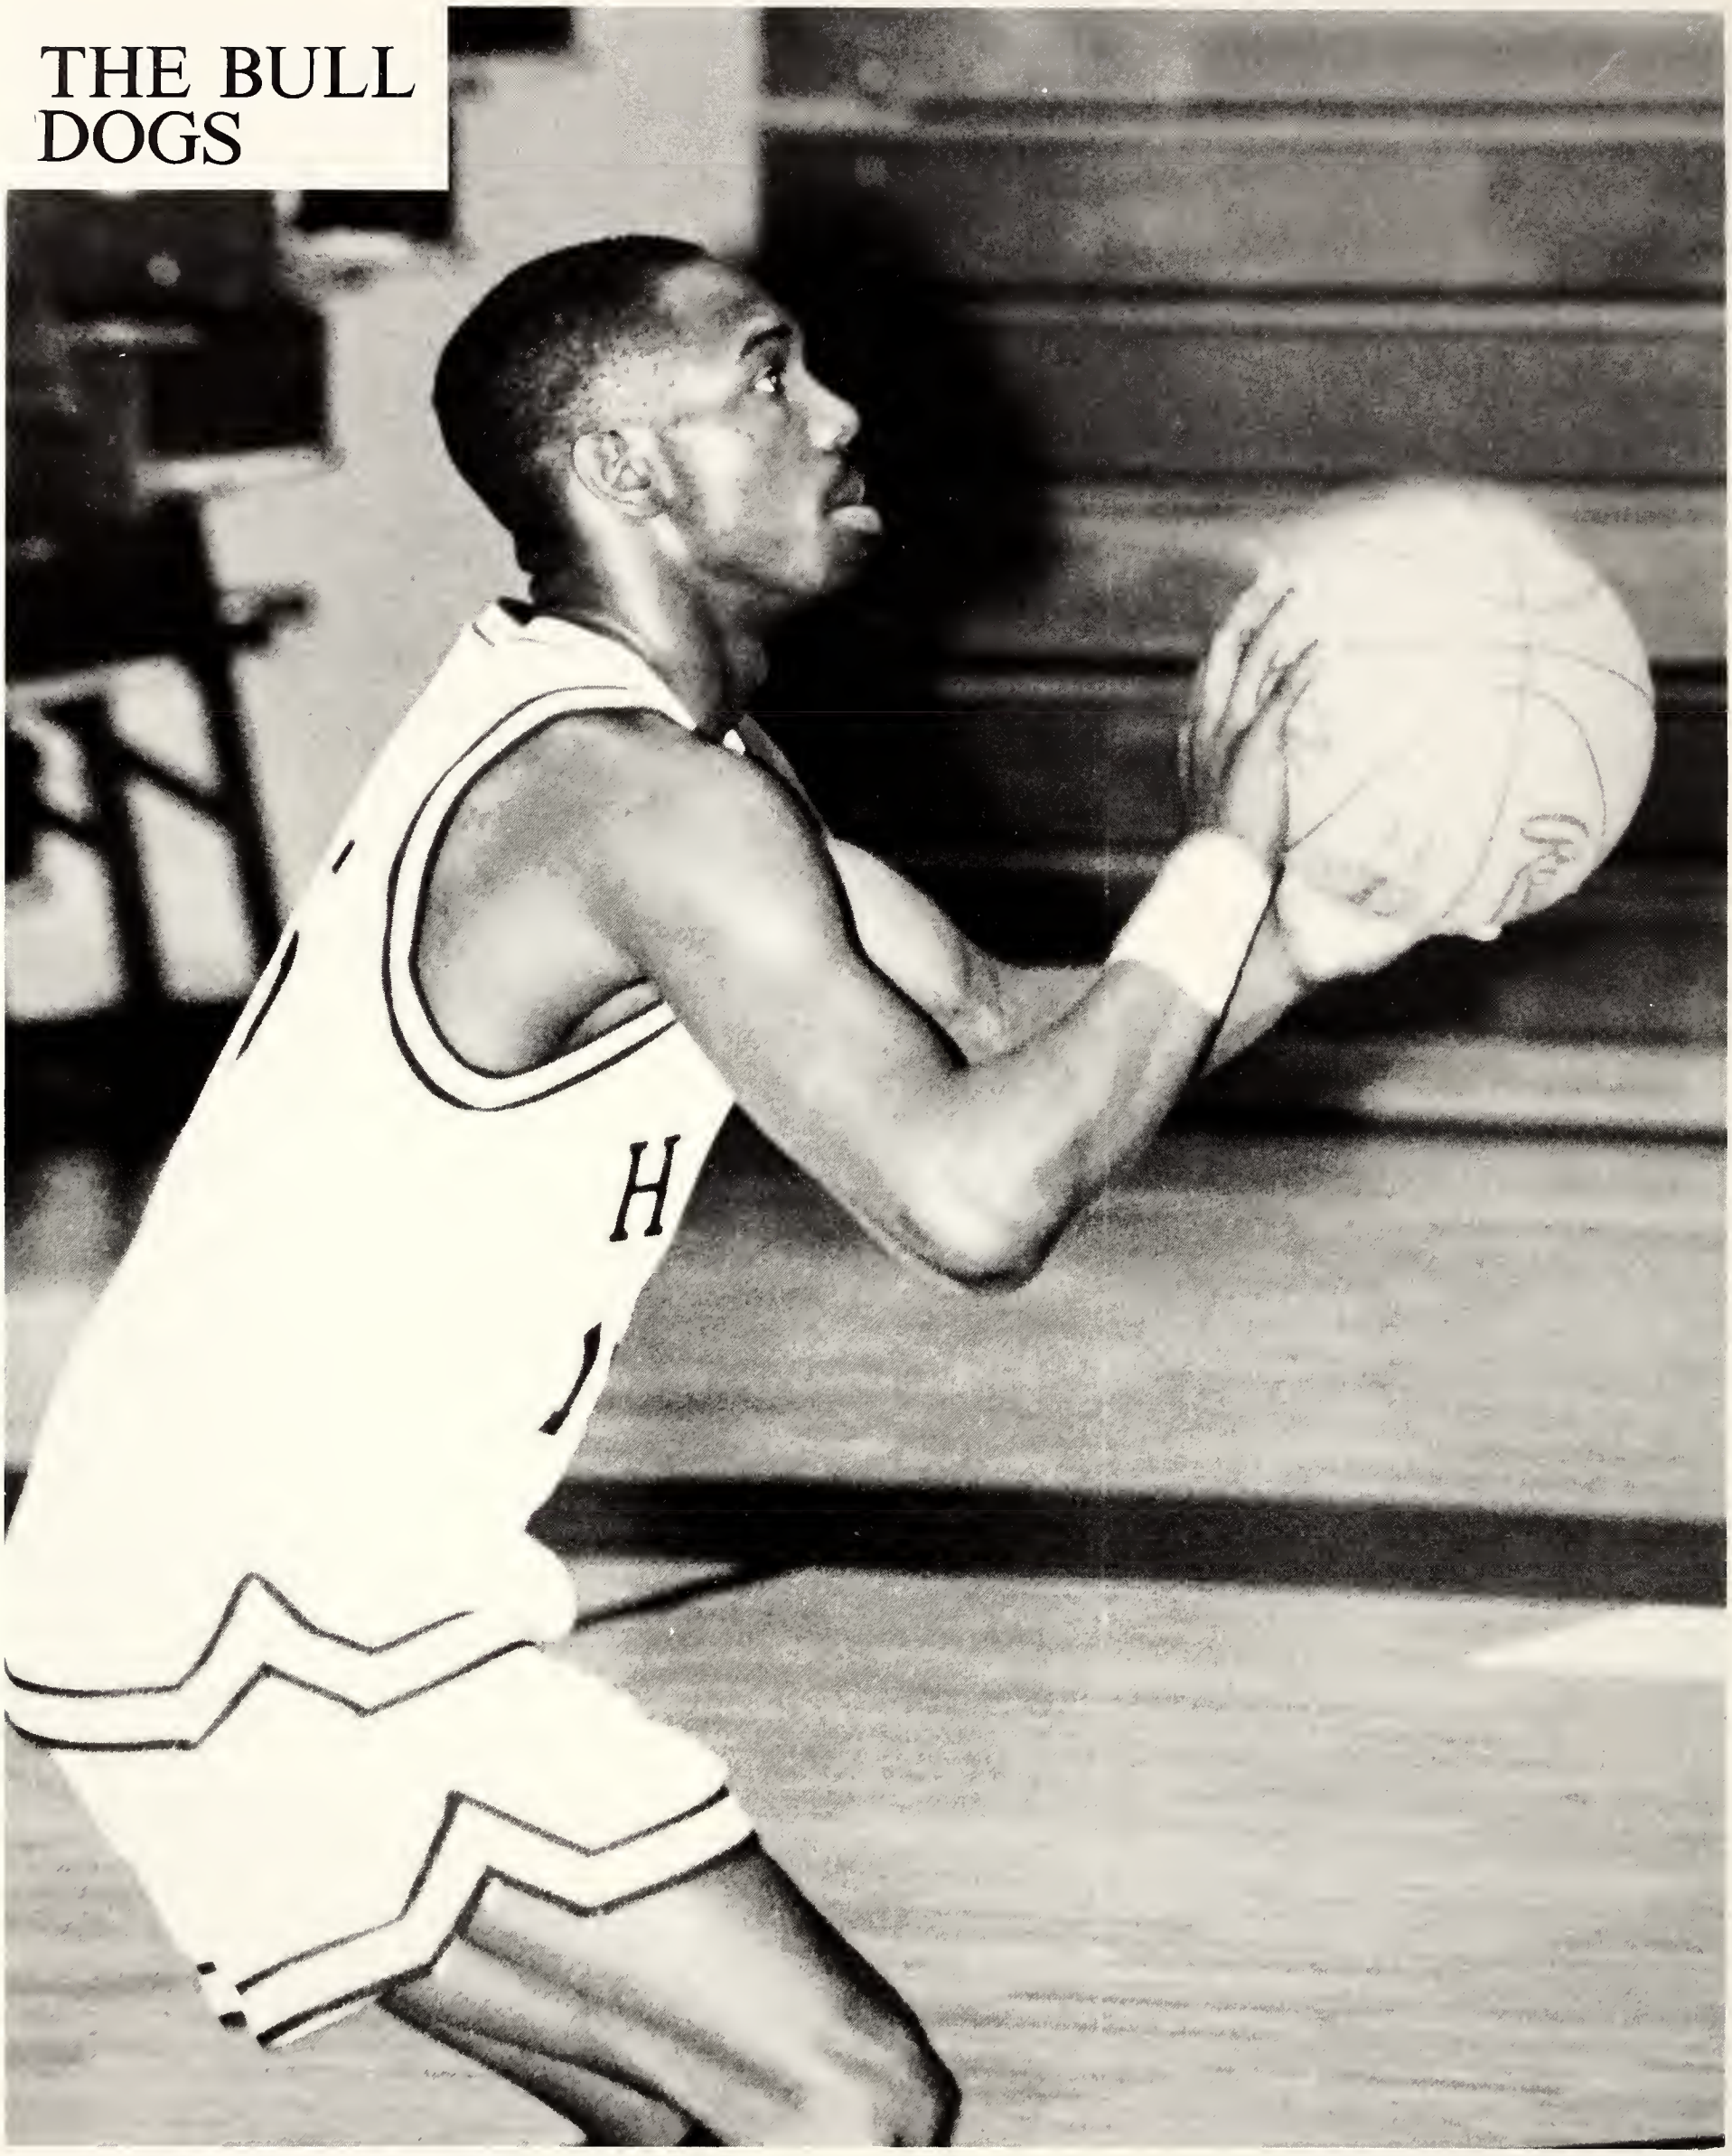

Irvin Williams shakes his man and drives in for the two.

Kelly goes up and dunks with authority.

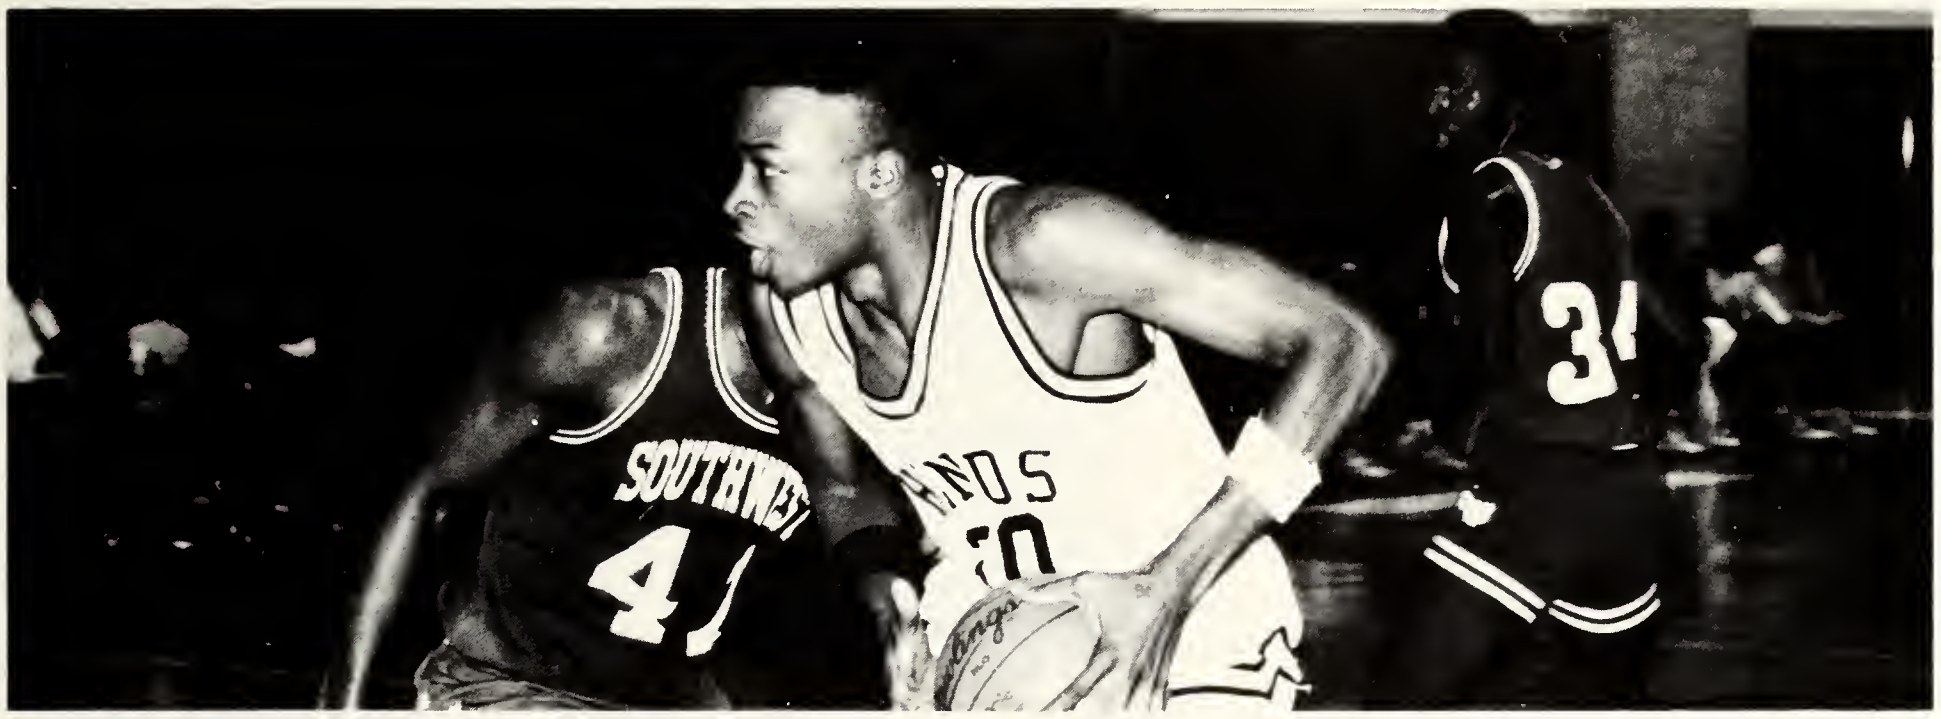

THE BULL DOGS

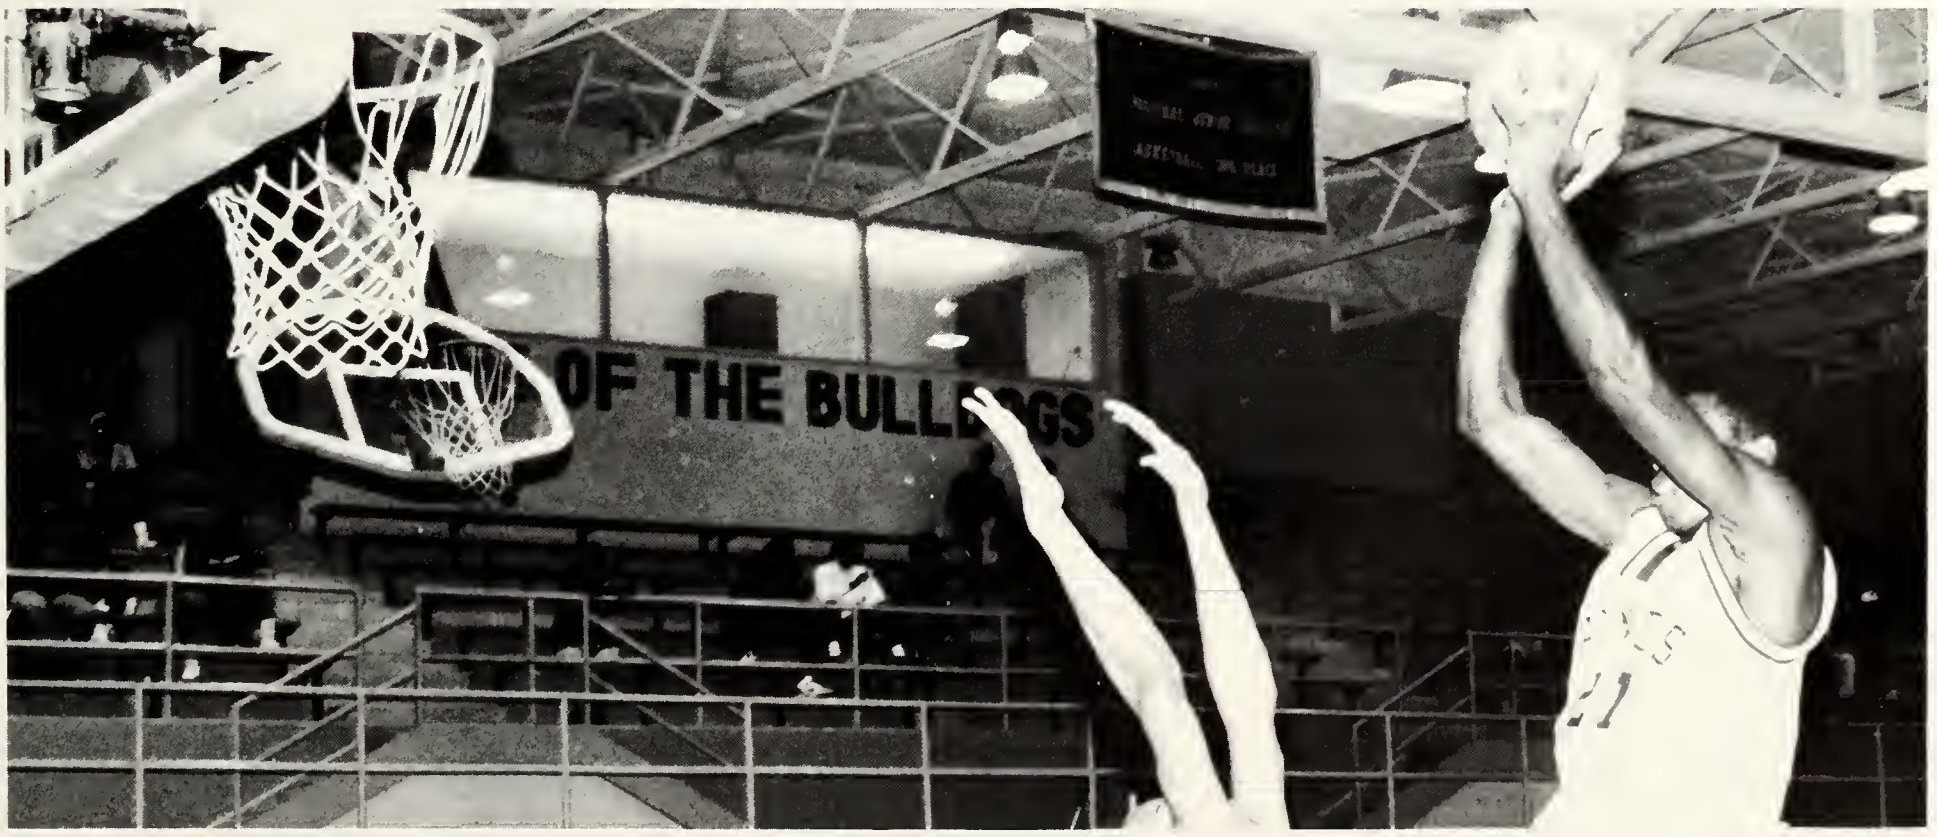

Vincent concentrates while shooting the winning free throw.

The coaching staff looks in disbelief. Nevertheless, the teams pulls off a win.

Terry drives to the basket off the dribble

Marvin goes high for two.

ANNUAL STAFF

I, alone with the staff, have put our best foot forward to capture your most cherished memories of this academic term. I hope that this journal will become one of your most prized possessions as you look back on your years here at the Utica Campus. I wish to express my deepest appreciation to all who have helped to make this yearbook possible. I would also like to send a special thanks to the entire student body for their cooperation and support. Mr. Brad Moore, photographer; Mrs. Willie Ealey — advisor; and Mrs. Bessie Brown co-advisor, I especially salute you.
